Healing With the Angels

Angelic presence has become a natural part of the Reiki-Essence healing sessions
I offer.

As I channel Reiki, the Angels always come forward with their own loving energies to surround, support, and assist both the client and me throughout the healing experience.

♥ Archangels Michael and Gabriel are present for every client. Other Archangels may also come forward depending upon the individual and what they are ready to receive.

♥ Every person is unique, and so is the Angelic support that surrounds their session.

♥ Archangels Uriel, Metatron, Raphael, Gladiel, and Ariel are among those I frequently experience offering healing, guidance, and Love.

♥ At times, members of the Seraphim
and Cherubim have also appeared, surrounding the healing table and working energetically with the client while I continue the Reiki healing.

Archangels Gabriel & Michael

Archangel Gabriel

Love & Divine Guidance

Archangel Gabriel comes as a loving messenger. His presence often brings an affirmation or message intended to help the client recognize and trust what they already know within their heart.

These affirmations can gently reinforce the direction their Higher Self is already guiding them toward, helping them develop greater trust in their own intuition and inner knowing.

You are guided,
you are loved,
and you already know
the way.

Archangel Michael

Strength, Truth & Blue Light

Archangel Michael brings strength, protection, and his Sword of Truth. I often experience his healing energy as a beautiful blue light that moves within and around the client's energy field.

Each person experiences this energy differently. Some may physically feel the energy moving through the body, while for others the experience may be emotional, mental, energetic, or spiritual.

I stand in your truth, I cut through what no longer serves you, and I surround you in divine protection.

Every Healing Is Unique

There is no single way an Angelic healing should feel because each healing is as individual as the person receiving it.

The Angels do not take your power away or determine your path for you. Their presence brings Love, support, healing, and guidance while honoring your own free will and the wisdom of your Higher Self.

*You are never alone in the healing space.
You are surrounded by Love, supported by Spirit,
and gently reminded of the wisdom already within you.*

Calling Upon the Angels

The Angels are always available to support and uplift you.

You may call upon them when you are releasing something, moving through an emotional experience, seeking clarity, or simply wanting to feel their Love and presence more deeply.

Because your free will is always honored, you are invited to consciously ask for their guidance, healing, and support.

You can speak to them silently or aloud. There is no special prayer or ritual required—simply call upon them with sincere intention and invite them to assist you.

Your Team of Light

You can call upon your Team of Light at any time.

As your vibration continues to rise and your energy aligns more fully, the presence of these Higher Dimensional Beings may become easier to sense.

They are always available to you, and as you open more deeply to yourself, you naturally open more fully to their presence as well.

They Are Here for You

The Angels and Your Team of Light are loving allies on your journey.

- ♥ They support your healing on all levels.
- ♥ They help you release what no longer serves you.
- ♥ They bring clarity, guidance, and Divine Love.
- ♥ They encourage you to trust your heart and your Higher Self.
- ♥ They celebrate your growth and always believe in you.

*Call upon them. Invite them in.
Receive their Love.*
